Disputed Calf Held by Rightful Owner, Says Jury

In the case of John Shinko against Mrs. Charles Molnar of New Salem, Pa., the jury today decided that the calf now in the possession of the defendant was the property of the plaintiff. The case was begun Monday morning before Judge J. Q. Van Swearingen and did not go to the jury until 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The jury was having a difficult problem to solve was evidenced from the fact that it had not agreed up on a verdict at 7:30 o'clock when court adjourned.

Each of the claimants was very positive in the identification of the calf. Newton Guthrie of Menallen township testified that he had sold the calf's dam to Mr. Molnar, deceased husband of the defendant and described in detail the breed and appearance of both the calf's dam and sire. Mr. Guthrie refused to state, however, that the color of the calf would be having never seen it. Witnesses were put through a grueling examination in an effort to determine the true shade in color of the calf in dispute. Mr. Guthrie testified that neither the dam nor the sire of the calf was pedigreed. The dam he said was more than a half Jersey and the sire about three-quarters Holstein.

CHINESE PORT TWICE LOOTED

International Police Guard Is Planned After New Burning and Pilling.

Following the looting of the Yangtze port of Ichang and the burning of a considerable portion of the city by marauding Chinese troops early in June, it is probable steps will be taken to have an international settlement in the city. This measure was proposed by foreign residents, when they were asked to advise the Chinese merchants concerning how the city may be safeguarded in the future.

The outbreak of the Ichang troops followed a former outbreak that had occurred just six months before. On both occasions the city was looted and portions were burned, with the loss of a considerable number of lives. No estimate of the loss incurred in June has yet been given, but it is stated that it will exceed $1,000,000.

ANCIENT TAVERN A LANDMARK

Constructed in 1818, It Stands as a Monument of Good Work Done by Its Builders.

One of the oldest and most historic places in Connellsville is Rider's tavern, located one mile west of the town hall on Mentor avenue, says the Pittsburg (Ohio) Telegram. The old landmark was built in 1818 by Joseph Rider, who is thought to be the third inhabitant of Connellsville. The tavern is located on the old Cleveland-Buffalo road, and was a stopping place for the stage coaches in the old days.

The building, as one can imagine, was built to stand the wear and tear of the weather. The old place is made of hand-hewn beams whose perfection and durability show the art of the man who made them, both in ability as an axman and as a woodman.

The tavern was noted for its hospitality, dance hall, cooking and bar. Many a joyful event took place within the walls. There were other taverns in and about the locality and Mr. Rider had to be on his toes in order to capture all the trade he could. "To better insure his business Mr. Rider built a road which is now Walnut street and which brought the weary travelers directly to the door of the building where they were sure of being shown to a good bed."

The building, as it stands now, although in good shape for the time that it has been built, is beginning to show the effect of age.

The tavern has been an hotel, as it were, of the family since it was built, four generations having lived within the protection of its sturdy walls.

WISDOM OF JOHN CHINAMAN

Instruction and Advice That Have Been Current in the East for Many Centuries.

The following bits of wisdom were written 2,700 years ago and have been very highly esteemed by the Chinese people down through the centuries. They are selected from the Chinese "Four Books."

If a man himself does not walk in the right path, he will not be able to lead his wife and children. If he does not order men according to the right way, he will not be able to get the obedience of even his wife and children. To nourish the heart there is nothing better than to make the desires few. Here is a man whose desires are few; in some things he may not be able to keep his heart, but they will be few. Here is a man whose desires are many; in some things he will be able to keep his heart, but they will be few. To have faults and not to reform them, this, indeed, should be pronounced having faults. The philosopher Tsung said: "I daily examine myself on three points: Whether I may have been not faithful; whether, in intercourse with friends, I may have been not sincere; whether I may have not mastered and practiced the instructions of my teachers." When we see men of worth, we should think of equaling them; when we see men of a contrary character, we should turn towards and examine ourselves.

War Explosives for Farmers.
Washington.—The Department of Agriculture has 12,500,000 pounds of salvaged "comparatively safe" war explosives to give to farmers for land clearing. Farmers are advised "to treat it with respect, for the records are filled with stories of men who forgot this precaution in handling dynamite and other dangerous things."

"SMALL TALK" IS IMPORTANT

Well Worth Cultivating by Those to Whom Its Possession Has Been Denied.

The man who is a failure at small talk never quite knows what the girl he is talking to has to say. He is trying to think what he is going to say next, so of course he cannot fail to misunderstand what the girl he is talking to says. He is restless, abstracted, worried and has a way of listening to the conversation of others rather than to those at hand.

The girl whom men regard as a good talker is always ready with a laugh, and the girl who laughs well is always popular. One can excuse the girl who giggles if she giggles in a way that makes others merry and seems to tell those with whom she talks that they are entertaining her immensely; that their stories are deliciously funny—though they may be very stupid—and that on the whole she is enjoying herself and her companions thoroughly.

"How should a man start the conversation at a dance?" is a frequent query. There are 1,000 ways and at least any way is a good way providing it is prompt and wholehearted and according to the girl's mood. Nothing is said. Little personal remarks that are not important are sure to win a girl's attention.

"I was impatient for this dance," says the popular man to the girl dressed in old rose, whom he has met for the first time that night. "Because I always find that I get along famously with girls that wear pink. I can tell a lot about a girl by the color she likes to wear."

The man who never seems to know what to say to a woman would say something like this: "If I knew I had this dance with a girl in pink, but there are so many girls in pink here, and they all look alike to me so I was afraid I would ask the wrong girl."

Made Him Look Small.

A young and newly married couple were entertaining their friends, and among the guests was one whose combined rudeness made him extremely objectionable to the rest of the company. His conduct, although most unbearable, was put up with for some time, until at supper he held up on his fork a piece of meat which had been served to him, and in a vein of intended humor, he looked round and remarked:

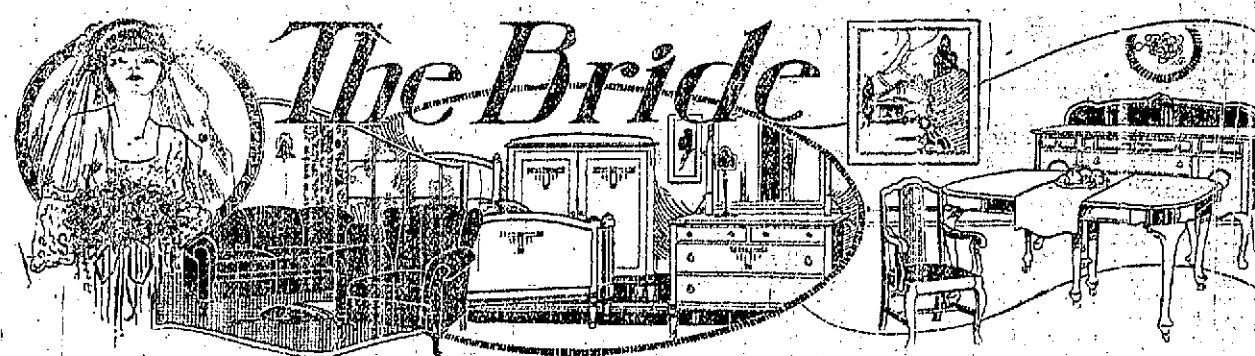

"Is this pig?"

This immediately drew forth the remark from a quiet-looking individual sitting at the other end of the table: "Which end of the fork do you refer to?"

MILLINERS THREATEN TO CORNER SNAIL MARKET

Hint to housewives: If you want to get your snails, you would better go and get them now. If you don't, you'll find out that the snail market is being cornered by the milliners. The milliners need snail shells for decorative purposes. Here is a French model but that is trimmed lavishly with nothing but snail shells.

MAKE REAL SILK PURSE OUT OF EAR OF A SOW

Chemists Upset Ancient Maxim by Spying on the Work of the Industrious Silkworm.

A silk purse made from sows' ears, as chemistry's answer to the old saying that it couldn't be done, was shown at the chemistry exposition in New York recently.

In announcing the successful result of experiments, Arthur D. Little, Inc., chemists and engineers of Cambridge, Mass., said the silk was not very strong and that there was no present industrial value in the process involved. It was more or less the product of chemistry at play, but a contribution also to philosophy in proving the fallacy of the old proverb.

In reciting the factors that entered into the production of sows' ears from Chicago stockyards to a silk purse such as a woman might carry, the chemists explained that the first step was to analyze the silkworm's method of making silk. This done, its caterpillar chemistry was copied in the laboratory.

It was found that man had to provide a substitute for a process by which the silkworm excretes from two fine ducts in its head minute threads of a viscous liquid, coated with another secretion, which are cemented into a double strand. This becomes a fine filament of silk when it coagulates on reaching the air.

Analysis of this viscous liquid showed it to be like glue and with somewhat similar chemical properties. The sows' ear being chiefly gelatin and skin, also has the natural elements of glue. This was obtained from the ears and it was put through several processes of preparation, filtered under pressure and placed in spinning apparatus of a special design.

The solution of glue and chemicals came out as sixteen very fine colorless streams, joined into one composite fiber, treated to give it strength and color and processed yet again to obtain the desired soft silk feel. The weaving followed on a small hand loom, the fabric was formed and the purse made.

IT'S JUST GRAND SAYS MRS. COOK

"Tania" Has Certainly Been a Wonderful Blessing to Our Home," Declares Pittsburg Woman.

"Tania certainly has been a wonderful blessing in our home, and I'll always praise it," said Mrs. T. C. Cook, 212 Sycamore St., Pittsburg, Penn.

"For six years I suffered from an awful case of stomach trouble and nervousness. My appetite was poor, I could eat only certain foods, and but very little of anything. Every bite caused me hours of suffering, and I had headaches and dizzy spells constantly. I was restless at night, seldom slept at all before almost time to get up, and all the time I felt weak and ran down."

"Well, my husband and I have both taken Tania with splendid results, and are very grateful for what it has done for us. My stomach trouble is completely gone now, my appetite is good and I eat most anything I want without a sign of indigestion. I sleep well every night, never have an ache or pain of any kind, and feel strong and happy all the time. My husband's case was pretty much like mine, and Tania has helped him just like it did me. It is simply grand to feel so fine."

Tania is sold in Conneltsville by Conneltsville Drug Co., and by leading druggists everywhere.—Advertisement.

FAYETTE CLUB ARRANGES FINE SHOW; CARVER AND GOLDIE WILL MEET HERE

Favorites of Both East and West Will Battle Monday, October 17.

OTHER BOUTS PENDING

Another stellar battle front will be the offering of the Fayette Athletic club's second show of the season. Eddie Carver, the smashing negro boxer of Pittsburgh, a big favorite here on account of his fast style of fighting, will be called upon to meet the first long standing, Lew "Young" Goldie of Pittsburgh and Detroit. These two boys will come together on Monday evening, the 17th. This contest is in line with the policy of the club, that only contests between well known and good boxers of repute will be seen in the star bouts.

Carver needs no introduction to local fans. He performed here on three different occasions last season and his striking was always of the best. Young Goldie will make his debut for the first time before local fans. Goldie is one of the best known ring men in the country. Every big city has had a glimpse of the hard fighting Goldie. He has fought such stellar battles as Johnny Ray, Eddie Carver, Eddie Winter, Harvey Thorpe, Johnny Menzies and fully a hundred others.

In Detroit, Goldie is a big attraction and the fans of the auto city figure he can "lick" anyone his weight. When Goldie came back to Pittsburgh last winter he was matched to meet Carver before a Smoky City mob and the affair was such a hectic encounter that the boys were matched to battle again the following week. The results of the contests were unsatisfactory to both boys, and the third meeting here will undoubtedly be of the same calibre, as the feud between these youngsters is one rarely seen between two ring artists.

Johnny Donnelly, former Uniontown boxer, now of Newark, N. J., came out like a little soldier and admitted over is signature in a Pittsburgh paper Monday afternoon, that he did not want to box Billy Carter, in this city or elsewhere. This evidently means that Carter will never get the opportunity of wiping out the defeat that Donnelly holds over the local boy. Donnelly, practically admits in his article, however, that he has a world of respect for the heavy hitting ability of Billy's fists and wants no more of his game.

Billy Carter is not after. Charley Penn, the knockout king of Ambridge, who is favorably known here. Penn, through his manager, Paul H. Harmon, is claiming the welterweight champ-ship of the Pittsburgh district. Although none of the wanted world boxers of the Smoky City region have expressed a desire to meet Charley, Carter is willing to concede a few pounds and go out of his class to mingle with the boy who has a record of 47 straight knockouts to his credit.

Johnny Pollock received a badly cut lip from one of Frankie Welly's heavy smashes in their recent encounter, and although badly worsted, the lawman sensation is looking the matchmaker of the local club to sign him again with the Laurobo boy. Should they ever come together what a corking good bout is in view.

H. S. GRIDDERS "SHOULD GET GOOD SPANKING"

Connellsville high school's football team seems to be facing a critical period. There are said to be some players who were in the varsity lineup Saturday who are showing their true colors this week by remaining away from practice instead of getting out on the gridiron to better themselves for the Peabody contest, to be played Saturday. This is having its effect on the others and unless the student body steps out and "talks up" its eleven, there may be disastrous results. It is feared.

Reports this morning were that several men had quit and that there would be no team at all this week. Close questioning revealed that one big line candidate was "sulking again," and others who were missing were injured players. The absence of one fine man isn't going to be felt very much on the team, especially as Coach Wane has been "breaking in" several others to try out for the defense positions.

The school spirit, so evident at the beginning of the season, has waned considerably, it is said. Organized effort to again stir this up would mean much for the team and the game itself. The best organizers for the purpose are held to be the students themselves—each student to appoint himself or herself a committee of one to make another a real booster and stop the "sulking."

Other schools have teams which have undergone worse defeats than the Cokers did Saturday. Their out-lets have died hard and the morale never cracked. Some weak spots in the Coker line, however, allowed the Johnstown backs to crash through when a little energy would have stopped them.

Then when criticized by the coach, and just as these players, it is said, pouted and whined like small children. A good spanking by parents or the coach might do some of the spoiled ones some good, a fan suggests.

More practice on the tackling dummy would be a big part in the high school regimen. It is a fact, however, that some of the men are very much averse to this work.

There were five regulars of the 1920 Johnstown team on the bench Saturday, which all goes to show just how strong the Azure and Black combination was.

It was rather shameful to hear some high school students, among them a man who has been out for the team himself, "razzing" their own players Saturday.

Even after such a downfall, Connellsville should take Scotland into camp. The Ally Towners seem to have ward work to do. East Huntingdon—unless of course, the latter outfit is something more than usual for a township school.

There was a sad lack of school spirit displayed last week-end. The attendance of students was amazingly small. A few spirit raising mass meetings might help students to come out of their apathy. Before Johnsown got for this city, a running mass meeting was held in the school and the players sent away with a feeling they had to return with a decisive victory to their credit.

The Tormentors expect to have a hard out for their opening game here, on Wednesday, October 12, with Saterville.

The Cokers might have scored on Johnstown Saturday if O'Donnell had been given an opportunity to drop kick in the last quarter. It would not have been much of a count, but nevertheless the high school would not have undergone a whitewashing.

The Cokers jacked a good punter. Johnstown had four men who could be called on to boot the ball whenever necessary.

J. Kristoff reminded local followers of the game of Grand Lehigh when he took Soloson's punt for a 30-yard run to touchdown in the third quarter. A man of Lehigh's speed and punting ability would be a big asset to the team this year.

Harmon, playing football for the first time this year, is showing up well.

Joe May Didn't get off any of his long end runs Saturday. No interference.

The Tormentors will not cease work even though the coach is away at this time. The team expects to play football up until December if the weather remains fit. Saturday games will be played after Thanksgiving when the Coker season ends.

HEROIC SOUTHERNERS WOULD BEAT HARVARD

One Idea Is in Minds of Center
College Students.

Much Depends Upon Return of "Bo"
McMillin, Super-Star of Kentucky Team—Much Credit in Due to Robert Lee Myers.

Little Center college is preparing to shine again this fall in football.

One idea is in the minds of the dauntless southerners. It is to beat Harvard this fall, the feat which they tried so gallantly to do a year ago and failed.

"If all goes well, 'Bo' McMillin, the superstar of the praying eleven, will play. Then we will let Harvard do

"Bo" McMillin.

in the first signs of football weather.

Robert Lee Myers, athletic director and alumnus of Center, has probably led more to do with finding the outcast players of the second than any other man.

Myers was teaching school at Fort Worth, Tex., several years ago. He was also football coach. His team any football at all in him owes it to himself and the school he is attending to get out on Fayette field and report to Coach Wane, even if he has to wear his own old clothes for a time.

If he is going to be valuable, it won't be long until a uniform will be found for him.

Football seems to have the same effect on some players as autumn weather does on leaves or trees. It makes them turn color.

Pittsburgh sport writers pay the high school teams of that district have been overrated. Yet there are some Coker players who ask: "Do you think we have a chance with Peabody?" The scooner the players get such questions out of their heads the better it will be for them. Every team always has a chance and it is a good one until the last whistle blows.

Last year Peabody scored several touchdowns directly from fumbles of Coker players. The team isn't fumbling this season, so why not a Connellsville victory?

There is a bunch of good boys working for places on the high school team and they are winning the admiration of the fans by sticking on the job.

the worrying on October 20."

That in the talk going the rounds from corner drug stores and fraternity houses alike, writes Don Snyder in the Chicago Post.

Coach Charles Moran, who built up the weaker team, believes that "Bo" will be back to maulskins when he blows the whistle for the first practice.

Big Bill James, star tackle of the Colonels, put the southern correctly
when he said:

"We are going to beat Harvard. If we are ever going to be able to do it, then it will be this fall."

Jimmy Weaver, the All-American center, Red Roberts, the slugging fullback, and Montgomery, the other star beat every eleven in the surrounding country.

Moping to better conditions at his alma mater he sent four of his notable protectors to Danville. They were Mc-Millin, Weaver, James and Montgomery.

Those who saw the great "Bo" play in the Harvard stadium last fall will never forget his gallant playing against odds that were too great.

"Barney" golf links are a pretty sure sign of a happy farm or community. Pitching lawnmowers is a 100 per cent American sport.

tablished a world's record for the 1,000

At the Theatres Sulphur Clears Up Rowdy Red Skin

THE SONS OF
'COURAGE' is the feature of the new Sulphur. It is an adaptation of the famous novel of the same name by Louis L'Amour. The story is a tale of adventure and romance, set in the rugged mountains of the West. It follows the life of a young man who grows up in a frontier town and becomes a hero. The film is a masterpiece of the genre, with excellent acting and a beautiful score. It is a must-see for anyone who loves a good Western.

Colts Stop Quick
 A comedy-drama featuring a young man who is a champion horse rider. He is challenged by a rival and must prove his skill. The film is a fast-paced action picture with many exciting scenes. It is a great example of the comedy-drama genre.

RIGHT-METZLER CO

Shall he be an Admiral or Sport?

THAT is the question up to John—his mother—to decide. The deciding being done when they choose his topcoat for the season.

Boys topcoats come in all shades including blue serge—some heavily brass buttoned—for young admirals. Others in navy blue for sports. Prices $1.50 to $5.00 and $10.

And these just days of school have shown that the simple ones have a suit, three in Sun Park in popular flannel plaid and mixtures, they've realized that every student's outfit must be at least $1.50 to $2.50.

And—less expensive and pretty nearly as attractive—Cortley Jr. clothes in trim looking nautical styles will tailored and ready wearing, at $1.00 to $1.50 up to $2.00.

Today Baby reigns among the Blankets

TRUST babies hereabouts to chuck contentedly when they can have blankets such as these to cuddle under—and trust their happy mothers to buy them—'or Comfort's sake.

A stroll through Blanketville unfolds these values:

Baby bags bound in satin binding size 14 1/2 and found in pink and blue at $3.25.

Crib blankets on which lambs gambol daisies bloom or butterflies flutter by baby's great delight—are variously sized and priced at $1.00 $1.25 $2.00 $2.75 and $3.25.

Other interesting arrivals

ARE a new good weight and cotton blanket 66x50, appearing in combinations of tan and white blue and white grey and white grey and white and pink and white. Priced $4.50.

And a new all-wool blanket made by the Amara Society (who raise and shear their own sheep and perform every blanket making operation themselves—thereby guaranteeing quality) in a 5 lb weight, size 70x81. Priced $12.50 and $16.75.

Where East Meets West

THAT totally unexpected merger comes to pass in the new Perfume Burners we've had lately unpacked.

These burners are unshaped affairs, cast in bronze and gold—each with its own unique and beautiful spirit of the Orient and the best five genius of the West.

Having removed the lid, you find a little rough for perfume and a socket for a small electric bulb so hot in operation, the heat from the bulb liberates the souls of lost flowers imprisoned in the perfumes all the while the light itself glows with the subdued radiance of an East plan.

Happy the bed-room or parlor that boasts one of these! Priced $8.50 $10 and $11.00.

Chasbru Companion Cases 75c and $1

HERE is something with an appeal almost universal. School kids like it—as do their more astute brethren in college. And it even finds a place in many a grown-up's life.

The Chasbru outfit at 75c consists of a genuine leather case in black or brown containing two pencils with erasers, two plain pencils and a pen holder with your own name stamped thereon in bright gold letters for good measure.

At $1.00 it includes two pencils with erasers, two plain pencils, one pen holder, an extra pencil point protector and a little flap pocket for odd pen-points—with your name stamped in gold not only on the case itself but on every pencil.

For a birthday gift or any other occasion that requires a sensible remembrance, Chasbru Companion Case is both inexpensive and unexcelled.

Housecleaning Needs

Come to think of it, the sweeping could be done much easier and better if the broom had been bought in the Housefurnishings Sale for only 95c. And other values that might help you make housecleaning time happier are:
